

Gearing Up For Your Transitions

It's Against Delaware Law

To Use An Electronic Device While Driving

Delaware Law - Title 21- Chapter 343 - Section 4176C, states "No person shall drive a motor vehicle on any highway while using an electronic communication device while such motor vehicle is in motion."

What Is An Electronic Communication Device?

- Cell Phone
- Personal Digital Assistant
- Electronic Device with mobile data access
- Laptop computer
- Pager
- Broadband personal communications device
- Two-way messaging device
- Electronic game
- Portable computing device

What does using mean? This refers to driving a car while doing the following:

- Talking on a Phone
- Viewing or transmitting images or data
- Playing games
- Texting
- Composing a message
- Sending
- Receiving
- Browsing
- Saving
- Retrieving emails